

CALL FOR PAPERS

International Conference
REGIONAL INTEGRATIONS – A COMPARATIVE APPROACH
May 28th, 2010

The conference is organised by Ecole Supérieure de Commerce International de Lognes, Marne la Vallée, in cooperation with Université Paris-Est Marne-la-Vallée.

The subject of the conference

After the end of the bi-polar world just twenty years ago, regional blocks grew and multiplied. However, their scopes, institutional settings and degrees of economic integration vary greatly in Europe, the Americas and elsewhere.

A comparative approach of regional integrations from political, economic, legal, institutional standpoints should contribute to a clear understanding of their progress and shortfalls and allow for a tentative assessment of their results and future in the first decade of the twenty first century.

Regional integrations can be analysed from multiple theoretical and methodological perspectives, which include, but are not limited to, the areas of research suggested below:

- Comparing Regional Integrations: theoretical considerations in Law, Economics and International Relations.
- Comparing Economic Integrations: NAFTA, Mercosur, ASEAN.....
- Comparing Regional Institutions: EU, NAFTA....
- Comparative Results of Regional Integrations. Is European Integration a Useful Reference?
